Subject: Payment and Shipping

Dear Lynda,

Thanks for the mail

Haven said that,I have spoken with my customer and he has agreed to pay.

In view of what he has seen in the advert, he has instructed me to inform you of the following:

SHIPPING

* Shipping will be handled by Lion Groups.

Please note that cost of shipping and other formalities have been put into consideration ..

PAYMENT

* Payment will get to you in a refund cashier check with excess amount above the total cost.

This is because my customer had earlier made an attempt at purchasing but the late arrival of funds marred the whole arrangement.

Due to this development, the purchase had to be cancelled .

In addition to this, in line with our company policy, which only allows a refund payment on one cashier check thus restricting us from making dual payments.

Based on the facts mentioned above, it became imperative that we work out a plan so see that things are done right

In order to make this a reality,

I will like to give you a scenario of what payment proceedings will look like ..

- i) A check will be issued in your name and sent to you. ($5,000)
- ii) Haven gotten the check, you will cash and send the excess cash to the buyer. ($3500)(not Lomat Purchases -- Shipping Company).
- iii) After the check has been received by you and excess balance sent back to the buyer, our prepaid shipping agent agent [Mr Morteini Perrez] will come for the pick up, with all other necessary documents.

* It is important that I intimate you of the importance of the refund ..

Part of this cash will be used to pay other bills which will be incurred in the process of shipping (Prepaid Shipping)

Also you must know that you are not to pay for charges incurred during the process of refund .

Please confirm the receipt of this mail.

Send your approval with the following details

1. Full name
2. Phone number

3. Your full address (Postal/Zip code inclusive)

I'll be awaiting your most timely and positive response once you receive this mail.

Thanks for your understanding and GOD bless,

David Mills
